- Eggplant lasagna*
- Italian seasoned green beans*
- Garlic mashed potatoes*
- Chocolate brownie with cappuccino mousse parfait.*
- Coffee and iced tea*

Mimosas will be served from noon to 1 p.m.

All of this for the same price of $55! What a bargain! This year, seating will be assigned to assure that everyone has a place to enjoy the event. Tables of ten can be reserved as long as all 10 ticket payments are made at the same time. Two or three people can reserve seats at a table, AND attendees from each campus can indeed SHARE a table.

There will be bus transportation provided from the westbank campus to the gala. Please be ready to board at 11:15 a.m. There is no fee.

AUCTION ITEMS!!!!

Most everyone has opportunities to dine out, or shop, or take part in other retail exchange events. This is a perfect time to ask businesses for a gift card or other item that we can use in our Gala auction. Donation letters are available on each campus, if needed.

We are in desperate need of CLEAN 2 liter bottles for our Gala table décor. Make a note!

Guest Speaker: Both Campuses:

Rebecca Stahr, AARP Senior Program Specialist, has worked with seniors for 20 years. She is currently leading a team of more than 30 groups in the New Orleans area to help make us an age-friendly city. Rebecca will be on both campuses to talk about plans to make New Orleans age-friendly AND how to enhance "Aging in place" (Staying in your home.)

.....

Happy Mardi Gras!

Holidays: February 27 – March 3

Did you know....

Sometimes Mardi Gras is referred to as Shrove Tuesday, after the term “shrive” which refers to the unofficial custom of going to confession on the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, as a way of shedding guilt and sin before the spiritual journey of Lent.

Laugh Lines.....

My car keys.....
They weren’t in my pockets.
Suddenly I realized that I must have left them in the car.
Frantically, I headed for the parking lot. My husband scolded me many times for leaving my keys in the car ignition. He’s afraid that the car could be stolen.

As I looked around the parking lot, I realized he was right. The parking lot was empty; I immediately called the police, gave them my location and reported the car stolen. Then I made the difficult call to my husband and told him about the theft. There was a moment of silence. “Are you kidding me?” he barked. “I dropped you off!”

Now it was my turn to be silent. Embarrassed, I said, “Well, come and get me. “

He retorted, “I WILL AS SOON AS I CONVINCED THIS COP THAT I DID NOT STEAL YOUR CAR!”
