While attending a Marriage Encounter weekend, Walter and his wife Joan listened to the instructor declare, "It is essential that husbands and wives know the things that are important to each other."

He addressed the men, "Can you name and describe your wife's favorite flower?"

Walter leaned over, touched Joan's arm and gently whispered, "Pillsbury All Purpose, isn't it?" Thus began Walter's life of celibacy.

Mallory, a six year old, was describing her new Easter dress to her grandmother when the grandmother asked, "Do you know what Easter means?"

The child said that she did not. So the grandmother told her what it meant. "Jesus rises from the dead on Easter and he is born on Christmas."

The granddaughter asked, "What did he do on Halloween?"

"Just remember, once you're over the hill, you begin to pick up speed."
