You can now bring food and toiletry items for our Lantern Light ministry. Please pick up a list of needs at the front desk. Bins will be in the front foyer.

We are preparing a new 2014 membership directory. Please edit the directory with any corrections before we print the final copy. Look for the copies at the front desk at Lakeshore or with Doris on the West Bank.

Monday, October 27, the Lakeshore Campus will host guest speaker Casey Stuart, who will speak on "The History and Status of New Orleans Cemeteries." Wear something "Halloweenish" to celebrate the topic and time of year! 2 p.m.....the chapel.

Halloween refreshments will be served.

Looking Ahead.....

Mark your calendar for Tuesday, November 18, 2 p.m. Al Jackson, from the Historic Treme Collection, will speak on The Battle of New Orleans from a different perspective. Mr. Jackson will soon be opening the new Treme Museum, and will also inform us of the collections available to see at the museum. Don't miss out!

=====
Loyola Presidential Guest Series: The Rev. James Martin, S.J., author of numerous books and cultural editor of America magazine, will speak on Saturday, October 25, 7 to 9 p.m. in Roussel Performance Hall. Fr. Martin will recreate the world of first-century Galilee and Judea to usher you into Jesus's life and times. Free admission.

Lakeshore attendee Joy Mancuso has taken a semester off to be with her daughter and new granddaughter, Olivia Joy Dobson. She says she misses us and will be returning next semester.

Recycled beverage tabs help support the local Ronald McDonald House program. The Lakeshore campus is collecting the tabs for this significant cause. The program provides a temporary "home away from home" for the families of seriously ill children being treated at nearby hospitals. Look for the deposit box by the front desk.

Laugh Lines...

A mother was concerned about her kindergarten son, Timmy, walking to school. He didn't want his mother to walk with him. She wanted to give him the feeling that he had some independence, but yet know that he was safe. So she had an idea of how to handle it. She asked a neighbor if she would please follow him to school in the mornings, staying at a distance, so he wouldn't see her.

The neighbor agreed. The next day, the neighbor and her little girl set out to following behind Timmy as he walked to school with another neighbor girl he knew.

She did this for one whole week. As the two walked and chatted, kicking stones and twigs, Timmy's little friend noticed the same lady and little girl were following them as she seemed to do all week.

Finally, she said to Timmy, "Do you know that lady that has been following us?" "That's Shirley Goodnest and her daughter, Marcy," he replied. "Well, why are they following us?" the little girl asked. "Well," Timmy explained, "every night my mother makes me say the 23rd psalm 'cuz she worries about me so much. And in the psalm, it says Shirley Goodnest and Marcy shall follow me all the days of my life, so I guess I'll have to get used to it!"
