Attention teachers: Planning for the Spring semester is underway. We are always searching for new instructors and new course titles. Please let us know of anyone that might like to volunteer and teach at People Program. Maybe YOU!

Both campuses are collecting spare change for Bahamian Relief. (No bills) Look for the Kentwood jugs for coin placement. These are our dear neighbors, and our assistance will be greatly appreciated. All donations will be given to the Archdiocese for distribution.

Lantern Light, a day homeless shelter, is seeking donations of food and toiletries for men and women. Please pick up a list of needed items from the front desk. Donors can deposit items in marked bins on each campus.

People Program 50/50 continues on! See Doris or Lakeshore's front desk for tickets. Every two weeks a name will be pulled from each campus for a special prize. The general drawing will be the week before Thanksgiving. Yes! You will win CASH!!!!

WESTBANK

Bake Sale: Volunteers needed! Westbank Fall celebration will begin Tuesday, October 29 with a delicious bake sale. Volunteers are needed to bake goodies and to assist Molly Ballay with the sale. We will have a costume contest on Halloween, Thursday, Oct. 31.

Halloween “Howls”

If I’m lazy, and I can’t come up with a costume for Halloween, I would just wear a slip and write “Freudian” on it.

Julia Stiles

It’s that wonderful time of year again when the spider webs I’ve been too lazy to clean become functional decorations.

I like to get candy early for Halloween so I have plenty of time to buy more when I eat the first bag.

There is a grave site in Okemah, Oklahoma with a parking meter next to the gravestone. The meter has a “Time Expired” notice.

Why did the skeleton cross the road?
To get to the body shop.

When I was 12, I dressed up as my mother for Halloween. I put on a pair of heels, went door to door, and criticized what everyone else was wearing.
