A Sunday School teacher was discussing the Ten Commandments with her 5 and 6 year olds. After explaining the commandment to “honour” thy father and thy mother, she asked, “Is there a commandment that teaches us how to treat our brothers and sisters?” From the back, one little boy (the oldest of a family) answered, “Thou shalt not kill.”

The children had all been photographed, and the teacher was trying to persuade them each to buy a copy of the group picture. “Just think how nice it would be to look at it when you are all grown up and say, ‘There’s Jennifer. She’s a lawyer.’, or ‘That’s Michael. He’s a doctor.’” A small voice at the back of the room rang out, “And there’s the teacher. She’s dead!”
