Applause! Applause! Applause!

The Eastbank Fall Fest was a wonderful success because of all those who supported the event in special ways. We send our thanks to those who made beautiful items to sell and to all the volunteers who made our day run so smoothly.

Dennis Berner, our vocalist, was superb! For those of you who could not make it, we hope that you will be on board next year. We need better participation if we are going to keep People Program the first rate non-profit that it is. See you next year!

The last lecture on The Viet Nam War will take place on the Westbank Campus on Tuesday, December 8, at 1 p.m. in the Msgr. Allan Roy Parish Life Center.

Topic: PBS Movie: "The Last Days in Viet Nam"
This event is open to the public.

LOOKING AHEAD.....

Thanksgiving Holidays.....

November 23 – 27

The schedules for the Spring semester will be available Thanksgiving week online. Check our web page at www.peopleprogram.org.

Registration begins at 9 a.m. on Monday, November 30 on both campuses. (Lunch is noon to one p.m.) The registration fee is still $150. Registration closes at 2:30 p.m. each day.

The semester ends on Friday, December 11.

The dance classes of Laura Guerin-Hebert and Brant Broom will perform at Ferncrest Manor on Friday, December 4, at 10:am. We are so proud of their volunteerism

Thanks to all the Mah Jong players who bought 2015 cards. The National Mah Jong League rebated $258 to People Program. It is now time to order our 2016 cards. Orders with cash or check will be accepted until the end of December. Regular size cards: $8, Larger print: $9.

Checks can be mailed to:
Diane Schleifstein
6508 Hastings St.
Metairie, La. 70003

You can also leave your payment in an envelope at the front desk of the Lakeshore Campus. Please include your address, phone number and e-mail. The cards will be mailed directly to your home at the end of March, 2016.

Tulane Intern, Nelly Solorsano, is asking for assistance for her PhD. research. We need participants from the Westbank who have ever cared for a loved one with Alzheimers. Please sign up with Doris if you would like to help.

LAUGH!!!!

Mildred, the church gossip and self-appointed monitor of the church’s morals, kept sticking her nose into other people’s business. Several members didn’t approve of her extracurricular activities, but they feared her enough to keep their silence.

Mildred made a mistake, however, when she accused Henry, a new member, of being an alcoholic when she saw his old pick-up parked in front of the town’s only bar one afternoon. She emphatically told Henry in the presence of other church members that she had seen it and knew what he was doing.

Henry, a man of few words, stared at her a moment and just turned and walked away. He didn’t explain, defend, or deny. He said nothing.

Later that evening, Henry quietly parked his pick-up in front of Mildred’s house, walked home....and left it there all night.
