As we close out the Fall session at People Program, the staff wishes to all a warm and cozy holiday season. May we always see life through the lens of love. See you in January!

The following reflections are from Patricia Ward's poetry class:

WINTER

When years were young
with years many yet

first fun fall breeze
would my face flush.

Now, chill winds come
and shivers set

through nerves in need of parkas plush.

Fred Schwab

Christmas is a time of cheer
if only it lasted throughout the year.
Peace and love, kindness and
grace
to every creed, every color and every race.

Verna Larkins

In the dark of winter on the shortest of days
we look for a bright star above,
to lead us from earthly sorrows
to the promise of new life to come.

Mary Herrington

People Program salutes knitting instructor, Judith Darensburg, who is retiring after 17 years of teaching. Judy's love of knitting and sewing came as a young girl when she was influenced by her mother's best friend. Judy made all of her own clothes as a teenager! Her fondest memories will be of the "wonderful people whom she has had the pleasure to teach." Godspeed, Judy!

In Memoriam

Harold G. Engle, Sr.
(Husband of Pam Engle
Brother of Jackie Kosche)

Ho! Ho! Ho!

On Christmas Eve, Nathan thought it would be nice to buy his wife a gift for the next day. Always short of money, he thought long and hard about what to get. Unable to decide, he entered Macy's and in the cosmetic's section he asked the girl, "How about some perfume?" She showed him a bottle costing $150. "Too expensive," Nathan muttered. The young lady returned with a smaller bottle for $75. "Oh dear," Nathan groused, "still far too expensive." Growing rather annoyed at Nathan's stinginess, the sales girl brought out a tiny $25 bottle and offered it to him. "What I mean," he whined, "is I'd like to see something cheap." So the sales girl handed him a mirror.

Anyone who believes that men are the equal of women has never seen a man trying to wrap a Christmas present. (Sorry, guys!)
