“A good conscience is a continual Christmas.”
Benjamin Franklin

“Christmas is the day that holds all time together.”
Alexander Smith

“Christmas waves a magic wand over this world, and behold everything is softer and more beautiful.”
Norman Vincent Peale

“It came without ribbons. It came without tags. It came without packages, boxes or bags. Christmas can’t be bought from a store....maybe Christmas means a little bit more.”
Dr. Seuss

Light the Festive Candles

Light the first of eight tonight-
the farthest candle to the right.

Light the first and second too,
when tomorrow’s day is through.

Then light three, and then light four...
every dusk one candle more.

Till all eight burn bright and high,
honoring a day gone by.

When the Temple was restored,
rescued from the Syrian lord,

And an eight day feast proclaimed---
The Festival of Lights well named.

To celebrate the joyous day
when we regained the right to pray
To our one God in our own way.

LAUGH!!!!

Bob, a 70 year-old, extremely wealthy widower, showed up at the country club with a breathtakingly beautiful 25 year old blond who knocked everyone’s socks off.

His buddies at the club were all aghast. At the first chance, they cornered him and asked, “Bob, how did you get the trophy girlfriend?”

Bob replied, “Girlfriend? She’s my wife!”

They were blown over. “So how did you persuade her to marry you?”

“I lied about my age,” Bob replied.

“What, you told her you were only fifty?”

Bob smiled and said, “No, I told her I was ninety.”

.....
You know you’re old when you tell the grandkids that you’ve just been on a pilgrimage, and they think you meant on The Mayflower.
