February 6, 2012

SPEAKER SERIES: RANDY FERTEL, THE GORILLA MAN AND THE EMPRESS OF STEAK. Please join us on Friday, February 3 at 10:30 A.M. in the chapel at Lakeshore Dr. to meet Dr. Fertel, author, professor, philanthropist, as he shares some of the wonderful stories of his youth in Gentilly with parents Rodney and Ruth who were “out of the ordinary.” You will remember his mom as the owner of RUTH'S CHRIS STEAK HOUSE and his dad as the mayoral candidate who promised to bring gorillas to the Audubon Zoo, which he did, despite being roundly defeated. This presentation is of special interest to those students in New Orleans history and or creative writing.

GREATER NEW ORLEANS SENIOR OLYMPIC GAMES
February 16 is the deadline for entry into the 2012 games. (See more information at www.gnoso.net) Entry fee this year is $20.00 which allows you to participate in three sports—billiards, table tennis, team dance, darts, etc.—as well as enter one or more art/craft items completed this year. The Best Medicine

A Sunday School teacher asked her children as they were on the way to church service, "And why is it necessary to be quiet in church?" One bright little girl replied, "Because people are sleeping."

A mother was preparing pancakes for her sons, Kevin 5, and Ryan 3. The boys began to argue over who would get the first pancake. Their mother saw the opportunity for a moral lesson. "If Jesus were sitting here, he would say, 'Let my brother have the first pancake, I can wait'" Kevin turned to his younger brother and said, "Ryan, you be Jesus!"

A little boy was overheard praying, "Our Father who does art in heaven, Harold is his name. Amen."
