March 10, 2014

Make our Gala a family affair!

The 40th anniversary celebration on March 30 in Harvey, will capture unforgettable moments. Why not share the memories with friends and family? Our unique flavor of community and friendship is always on display at our champagne brunch. Let's invited others to witness this special quality.

Who can turn down: Bananas Foster French Toast, Fruit, Omelets made to order, Thyme Potatoes, Shrimp and Creamy Grits and free flowing mimosas? Bobby Cure and his Poppa Stoppa Band will provide the motivation to get up and dance. There are always special deals to be had at the silent and live auctions: How about an encased signed football by Drew Brees. Priceless! Or a week's stay in the Smokies in a rustic cabin! Why not dine out on some of the gift cards from Deanies, Windsor Court, or Ye Olde College Inn? So many bargains! See you there!

Lost and Found

Items in lost and found can be picked up at the Lakeshore campus front desk. If items are not claimed within 30 days, they will then be donated to Goodwill. Please help us return lost items to their rightful owners.

We will be collecting Mardi Gras beads to donate to special needs populations. Look for a bin in the lobby of the Lakeshore campus. Westbankers can give their donations to Sr. Janine on Wednesdays.

Congratulations to the following People Program Billiards classmates who participated in the New Orleans Senior Olympics: Jolynne Wells and Marilyn Nulty both received Gold Medals, and Rene Glindmeyer and Kathy Legrand both received Silver Medals. Judy Roth was awarded a Bronze Medal.

Medals were awarded in various age brackets.

Laugh Lines.....

A young man was strolling down a street. As he passed a large building with a fence around it, he heard a group of people chanting “Thirteen, thirteen, thirteen”, over and over again. Curious, he tried to see over the fence, but couldn’t. Then he spotted a hole in the wood. He put his eye to the hole, and just managed to spy on some old people sitting in deckchairs chanting. Suddenly, a finger came out of nowhere and poked him in the eye. As he staggered back, the old people started chanting, “Fourteen, fourteen, fourteen....”
