LET'S DO IT!

Our 2015 gala was a huge success! We had 250 people in attendance, and spirits were high as we dined, danced and bid on silent and live auction items. Kudos to all who supported People Program by attending, and to our Gala committee: Lynn Dave, Laura-Guerin Hebert, Shirley Judge, Winkie Hymel, Mary Walther, Charlene Vernotzy, Bert Kopf and Pat Jacobs.
Auction items were personally donated by:

Nina English, Gelone Lombard, Amy Dassey, Annie Becnel, Chris Carroll, Dr. Kelvin Contreary, Ed Dalferes, Bill and Elizabeth Furlong, Evelyn Menge, Jan Martino, Jane Ciolino, Joan Richardson, Joey Caruso, Julie Schopf, Kathy Bishop, Kay Lopez, Lynn Dave, Mary Ann Tassin, Max and Celie Winkeler, Peggy Hymel, Rhesa and Alden McDonald, Sandra Rowan, Vernella Rogers, Al Jackson, Ellen Goldring, Gayle Barclay, and The Lakeshore Jewelry Class.
Please note the various companies who donated (attachment), and make every attempt to patronize these generous proprietors. Let them know that you are from People Program. It makes a big impact!

Magazine Request...The Lakeshore campus is grateful for the many donated magazines. We ask that you bring issues no older than a year. We seem to keep multiplying the number of magazines on our tables! Thanks!

Puns for educated minds.....

I used to be a banker, but then I lost interest.

England has no kidney bank, but it does have a Liverpool.

I stayed up all night to see where the sun went, but then it dawned on me.

I'm reading a book about anti-gravity. I just can't put it down.

I didn't like my beard at first. Then it grew on me.

I did a theatrical performance about puns. It was a play on words.

Broken pencils are pretty much pointless.

I dropped out of the communism class because of lousy Marx.

Velcro – what a rip off.

Did you hear about the cross-eyed teacher who lost her job because she couldn't control her pupils?

All the toilets in New York's police stations have been stolen. As of now, the police have nothing to go on.
