Give NOLA Day is Tuesday, May 3. From midnight to midnight, donors can give to People Program by going to:

www.GiveNOLA.org and entering People Program in the search box. Simply fill out the required donation form. Your gift will be a safe entry since the sight is protected.

A percentage of the donations will be matched by the Greater New Orleans Foundation, so giving is generously rewarded. An e-mail that will provide you with a direct link to the sight will be sent on May 2. Last year, $5000 was donated....let's see if we can beat our best!

"Imagine One", the Congregation of St. Joseph quarterly magazine, is available on each campus for your enjoyment. Please take one home and shared it with family and friends.

The next day trip will be to beautiful St. Francisville on Friday, May 20. $55 per person will include: A tour of the famous Myrtles Plantation, the "Afton Villa Gardens", and "Grandmother's Buttons" a St. Francisville treasury of antique button jewelry.

Payment must be sent to: Angela Foster
P.O. Box 870028
New Orleans, La. 70187-0028
Please make checks to: Golden Movers and Shakers, LLC
Departure times TBA.
Based on 55 passengers, so don't delay!

The deadline is Monday, May 2.

In Memoriam

Harold Federer

Laugh a little.....

At dinner, Dad invited his young son to say a table prayer. The boy bowed his head and thanked God for the fried chicken, the mashed potatoes, and the brownies that were to come for dessert.

Then he looked up at his dad and asked, "If I thank God for the Brussels sprouts, will he know I'm lying?"

A little girl was with her mother watching TV when she turned to her mom and asked, "Mommy, how come there's so much gray in your hair?"

Hoping to make this a teachable moment, Mom replied, "Because every time you disobey me, I get another gray hair."

After a few moments, the girl turned to her mother again. "Then how come Grandma's hair is all gray?"
